

Evangeline

The world is dark, you only bear light
The roads are much too many, and only one is right
I'm born into this chaos and pain
And only you can wash and purify me sane

Leech onto my veins, stay out of life's games
Cancer the abyss, purity is bliss

The world I turned my back upon
To let you grace my face, to be your sheltered son

Don't leave me Evangeline, out in the cold
Don't leave me Evangeline
You and me Evangeline, all alone
Hold on to Evangeline

I learned a lot on our crusade
I see eternal light, a never ending day
I learned to fight the fool in me
I roasted him alive, all thanks to your strong lead

Good child, you've come far, you'll go further still Your light is a start, now go break some will Fill their hearts with fear
And chill, and hook them to my absolution

Don't leave me Evangeline, out in the cold
Don't leave me Evangeline, all alone
You and me, Evangeline, are flesh and bone
Hold on to Evangeline's all I know

Sweet sweet weakness, glowing veins
I sell the light you see
And rent the air you breathe
Sweet sweet weakness, glowing veins
I grow the bread you feed
And own the ground you feet

Lost soul don't know where to go
Lost soul don't know where to go
Lost soul, lost soul
Hold me in your firearms